

1. Purpose

The Board has established this committee to assist it in fulfilling its oversight and governance responsibilities in connection with its people, remuneration and culture activities.

The primary function of the Committee is to ensure:

- remuneration, culture and people policies and practices are designed to support strategy and promote long-term sustainable success.
- Executive remuneration is aligned to our purpose and values and is clearly linked to the successful delivery of the Society's long-term strategy.
- A formal and transparent procedure for developing policy on executive, director and senior management remuneration having regard to relevant legal and regulatory requirements, the provisions and recommendations of the UK Corporate Governance Code and associated guidance.

2. Membership and Attendance:

The Committee shall comprise at least three members, all of whom shall be independent non-executive directors. The Chairman of the Board may also serve on the Committee as an additional member if he or she was considered independent on appointment as Chairman.

Only members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the Chief Executive, the Head of Human Resources and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting as and when appropriate Appointments to the Committee are made by the Board on the recommendation of the Nominations Committee in consultation with the Chairman of the People Remuneration & Culture Committee. and shall be for a period of up to three years, extendable by no more than two additional three year periods, so long as members (other than the Chairman of the Board if he or she is a member of the Committee) continue to be independent.

The Board shall appoint the Committee Chairman who shall be an independent non-executive director and have served for a minimum of 12 months on the PRCC or the preceding REMCO. In the absence of the Committee Chairman and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting who would qualify under these terms of reference to be appointed to that position by the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall not be Chairman of the Committee.

Members of the Committee may participate in a meeting by means of a conference or video call where all persons participating can hear each other at the same time and participation by such means shall constitute presence at a meeting.

3. Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be 2 members. A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee.

4. Frequency of Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least once a year and otherwise as required.

5. Secretary

The Society Secretary or their nominee shall act as Secretary of the Committee and will ensure that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to the issues.

6. Notice of Meetings

Meetings of the Committee shall be called by the Secretary of the Committee at the request of the Committee Chairman.

Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors, no later than five working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to Committee members and to other attendees as appropriate, at the same time.

7. Minutes of Meetings

The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all meetings of the Committee, including recording the names of those present and in attendance.

Draft Minutes of committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to the Chairman of the Committee. Once approved, minutes should be submitted to the next Board meeting for noting unless it would be inappropriate to do so.

8. Duties

The Committee shall:

- Have delegated responsibility for determining the policy for Directors' remuneration and setting remuneration for the Society Chairman, Executive Directors and Senior Management including the Society Secretary, in accordance with the Principles and Provisions of the Code.
- The remuneration of non-executive directors shall be a matter for the Non-Executive Director Remuneration Committee.
- No director or senior manager shall be involved in any decisions in respect of his/her own remuneration. In determining remuneration policy, take into account all factors which it deems necessary including relevant legal and regulatory requirements, the provisions and recommendations of the Code and associated guidance. The objective of this policy shall be to attract, retain and motivate Executive Management of the quality required to the Society successfully without paying more than is necessary having regard to view of members and other stakeholders.

- Review employee remuneration and related policies and the alignment of incentives and rewards with culture
- when setting remuneration policy for directors, review and have regard to the remuneration trends across the building society sector.
- obtain reliable, up to date information about remuneration in other societies of a comparable scale and complexity.
- Review and approve annually the PRA Remuneration Policy Statement and Material Risk Takers Code Staff List
- review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the Remuneration Policy
- within the terms of the agreed policy and in consultation with the Chairman and/or Chief Executive, as appropriate, determine the total individual remuneration package of each Executive Director, Society Secretary and senior managers as it is designated to consider including bonuses, if and when applicable. The choice of financial, non-financial and strategic measures is important, as is the exercise of independent judgement and discretion when determining remuneration awards, taking account of the Society's and individual performance, and wider circumstances.
- approve the design of and determine targets for any performance related pay schemes operated by the Society and approve the total annual payments under such schemes, ensuring they are compliant with the requirements of the PRA Remuneration Code and other applicable law and regulation.
- To review and oversee the culture of the Society by reference to appropriate tools such as employee engagement, culture or feedback surveys, cultural indicators, or guidance given by regulators or industry groups such as the Building Societies Association

- A key consideration for the Committee is the diversity of the Society's workforce at all levels. The Society recognises the benefits a diverse workforce can bring and is committed to a culture that attracts and retains talented people to deliver outstanding performance. Appointments are made on merit and against objective criteria, whilst still giving consideration to diversity in respect of gender and other measures.
- determine the policy for and scope of pension arrangements for each Executive Director and other members of the senior management as it is designated to consider
- ensure that contractual terms on termination and any payments made are fair to the individual and the Society, that failure is not rewarded and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised.
- oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the Society.
- agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from the directors.
- work and liaise as necessary with all other Board Committees, specifically the Board Audit and Board Risk Committees to satisfy itself that performance objectives do not drive excessive risk taking and to ensure that the Remuneration Policy promotes sound and effective risk management.

9. Reporting responsibilities

- The Committee Chairman shall report to the Board after each meeting on the nature and content of its discussion, recommendations and action to be taken.
- The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed and adequate time should be available for board discussion where necessary.
- The Committee shall ensure that provisions regarding disclosure of information as set out in the Code, are fulfilled and produce a report of the Society's Remuneration Policy and practices to be included in the Society's Annual Report and Accounts and ensure each year that it is put to members for approval at the Annual General Meeting.

- If the Committee has appointed remuneration consultants, the consultant should be identified in the Annual Report alongside a statement about any other connection it has with the Society or individual directors.

10. Other matters

The Committee shall:

- have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to external representatives as required.
- be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members.
- give due consideration to laws and regulations, the provisions of the Code and the requirements of the Rules or regulations which may apply.
- arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least annually, review its constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

11. Authority

The Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain at the Society's expense, outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its Terms of Reference.

12. Annual General Meeting

The Committee Chairman should attend the annual general meeting to respond to questions from members on the Committee's activities.
